The Right Balance Between Wool and Meat

Why GullenGamble Merinos??

We offer our clients the chance to be in the enviable position of being able to adjust their Merinos rapidly towards either natural fibre production or meat production - to meet current market trends.

The versatility and flexibility that the GullenGamble Merino offers to your business is that you are not tied down to choosing between trying to sell a wether lamb to the meat trade or to keep it for wool production.

The GullenGamble Merino offers you multiple market choices.
